Harry had mere seconds to decide what to do.

Let's recall that God doesn't pick the "Most Likely to Succeed" (4) nominee.

But he won't be leading an army.

God's chosen people will be a covenant light for all people.

Besides, who wants to deal with a bunch of complainers?

"Righteousness" is a favorite Matthew word.

But they also couldn't omit John's (2) role from their accounts.

Yet the earliest apostles all insisted on baptism.

Human sinfulness is a given, but God promises forgiveness.

But woe to those who trusted in the fraudulent institutions and its sinful leaders.

Jesus is disillusioned by the religious establishment, too.

Our baptism challenges us to be full players, on the starting team, first string.
