

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

February 10, 2019

There are many who look at the nation today and say this is a time of opportunity.

When fears are the motivation, the deep water becomes more threatening.

This could be nominated for an Academy Award for all the special effects (2).

In the deep deep water (2), Isaiah experienced grace.

The phrase “fear not” (2) doesn’t appear here when you would expect it.

That should disqualify him from sacred service.

Peter has hung up his nets and is ready to head for the pub for a frosty before going home for the day.

He is humoring this respected teacher who should stick to what he knows and leave the fishing to him.

With that, the fishermen leave their boats behind (full of fish ?) and follow Jesus.

God calls us to break out of our pattern, to hop out of the rut, to get out of the hole.

Fear when you’re in deep water (2) leads to drowning.
