In the front row of that church sat six amputees.

She understands that new way is authored by God for her (2).

This time, God intends to command not Pharaoh in Egypt, but Cyrus the Great of Persia.

But something is missing ... there is no chorus of praise from God's people.

“This is the great danger which threatens any faith hidebound in dogmatism; faith that has ceased to expect anything really new from God

Theologically, this should be impossible.

It was worth a year's wages (2).

Judas is scrupulous, legalistic, and calculating.

The counterpoint to Judas is Mary.

Jesus will bear the kind of spirit that Mary revealed.

Practicality has scant relation to faithfulness and grace.
