

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

March 24, 2019

Those who were on diesel lines had to change at Jamaica.

Way in the back of the yard was a turntable.

Their liberation , courtesy of the Persians, is before them.

True, they were always second class (2) figures, aliens in a foreign land.

Turn aside the delusions of empire and worldly greatness, for greatness is only with God.

This was the prodigal son (2) story centuries before it was known as a Jesus saying.

Jesus gets told about a tragedy, some juicy gossip (2).

Sinners worthy of judgment always seem to be someone else (2), not us.

You see, we're the barren trees (2).

What the world expects of us has nothing to do with God's desires for us.

Lent is a season for truth– telling and truth– seeking, the small operating engines to turn us around.
