Catch what was said in the sermon?

... and we may have been on the ground laughing with Abraham at the astounding nature of God's promise

These are powers that are always present, and they're always competing with the authority of God.

Greed ran amok, complicity was the rule, and collusion was expected.

They know enough about Jesus to be very anxious (2).

Their job is to keep order (2) among the restive factions (2) of the religious.

They are concerned about their keesters.

It's very messianic, that the time for the Sovereign One from God has come.

In their legalistic response, they show that they miss the spirit of the gift.

Whatever Judas thought about Jesus, he was totally disillusioned and felt betrayed himself.

They are a force to be reckoned with, and their resistance is ferocious.

We are the living proof, the living legacy, that God has succeeded and the word lives.
