

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

March 27, 2016—Easter

Fortunately, before they left, the women put on the Mister Coffee (2) for the men.

We can imagine the men scoffing and mocking the women and their account.

Peter is wrestling with this turn of events.

Stale, sclerotic, and spiritless, it was like they were experiencing a slow death.

The promises are extravagant, but they are made by God.

Frankly, even our notions of this afterlife are pretty scandalous in their speculations.

Did we forget about Palm Sunday (2) ?

He was executed for sedition, for treason against the state.

God says you are free, liberated from fear, triumphant over death.

The resurrection is God's power (2) waiting to happen in those who declare Jesus to be Lord and Savior.
