Catch what was said in the sermon?

The Nicene Creed (2) was adopted in the early fourth century (2).

After the first Easter, or even after the first Pentecost, the church didn't simply hatch into being.

This has to do with identity, what it means to have new life (2) in Christ.

In this, 1st John echoes the letter of James.

Those who follow Jesus are _____ to be _____, just like _____.

One could add, as I'm sure the ancient listeners (2) did, that while none have seen God, none have seen Jesus either.

Initiating a ministry to Samaritans was a bold extension of their mission.

The eunuch is reading a text from the prophet Isaiah.

Like Greeks, Romans, and Samaritans, Ethiopians were not chosen by God.

... finally, that love is given witness by the willingness of the faithful to sacrifice, even their well - being, for the sake of the other who is in need (2) .
