Archaeologists found some seeds in the ruins of Masada.

In fact, it's likely to take 30 years for a date palm (2) to bear fruit.

What grows out of something sacred? We had the answer last week. What is sacred is meant to be a blessing.

What we have is Ezekiel's political opinion that Zedekiah was a fool.

Here we have a more universal expression, that birds of every kind (2) will make their nests in it.

He has told them, "The secret of the Kingdom of God has been given to you."

Like the others, this not some pretty little fairy tale (3).

The results of even the tiniest seed (2) will be a remarkable blessing for the little ones (2).

It is like the Kingdom that produces sacred blessings (2) for all in abundance.

How did Jesus sum up the Torah-Law when he was challenged?

Love is the nuclear power (2) of the Kingdom.
