FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

June 18, 2017

That also meant that top flight comedians (2) decided to pass on the event.

His dad (and mom) decided that … it would be best not to tell Hasan that he now had a sister.

He adds a calf to the cakes, and milk and curds besides water.

The one who spoke is now referred to in the text as "the Lord." (2)

I simply want to point out that laughter is a generous and gracious reaction to such remarkable news.

We are taught that God's preposterous promises are something worthy of our attention and our faith.

"Sheep without a shepherd" is a political phrase (2).

Well, what's the harvest and who are the workers?

They're supposed to teach, preach, heal, and show compassion.

We might even have a mocking laugh (2), just like Sarah.
