

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

The question suggests that the one who has moved out of place needs to withdraw.

But safety is not the aim of his trek.

Then comes (literally in Hebrew) the sound of fine silence (2).

This repetition shows that for Elijah, nothing's changed (2).

God graciously turns around (2) his cowering servant.

Like it was for Elijah, in this challenging question to us, we're called to discover God (2) anew.

The question is not about location here, but relationship.

“Legion” was what happened to rebellious regions (2).

This should make it very clear that this is a _____ symbolic rendering (2) of the story.

It is not about healing a naked nut job (3) who terrorizes a cemetery.
