

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon.

July 12, 2020

The next day would be the same kind of jumble of another variety of tasks.

I have a feeling I may have simply confused more people than led them to embrace the promise.

Worldly value systems (2) simply have no meaningful application in the servant work of being faithful.

It was Cyrus the Great, Emperor of Persia.

God's restaurant could never survive in the real world.

God's got plans that we'll never figure out (2).

Your job as a servant is to serve and leave the harvest to God.

But clearly, the seed is going everywhere just as God's promise goes to everyone.

Of course, Jesus wasn't giving a lesson on farming techniques or how to improve crop yields (2).

But if they describe the state of a person's faith (2), aren't they also subject to change?

Sow the seeds with reckless and selfless abandon.
