Professional dancers are schooled in the Graham Technique.

She boils down her moods and movements until they are devoid of all extraneous substances (2).

That version of history from Josephus doesn't square too well with the gospel version.

So, as Herod considers this account about Jesus, a thought bubble appeared over his head.

He has made a God-like promise for which he might easily come to regret.

He could not lose face, and Herod was forced to follow through (2).

Everything stops and the Ark is parked.

Now he wears only a linen ephod (2).

Michal comes and berates David for what she sees as his undignified behavior in the procession.

Humility as a servant before God is the proper role for any of the faithful.

God wants a dance partner (2), and that's you and me and all the brothers and sisters in God's world.
