Catch what was said in the sermon?

July 16, 2017

God is the worst doting parent (2) .

_____ and _____ can be seen as yoked. Oops

The Baylonians had been conquered by the Persians.

Wait a minute—the penniless are invited to buy stuff?.

The passage sprints through the life cycle (2).

Tall, proud trees rise up from where painful thorn and brier had reflected the plight of God's people.

God is doing the usual sloppy job (2) in the divine economy.

Of course, Jesus wasn't giving a lesson on farming techniques (2).

It is not a single event (2) parable, but a description of life pattern and process.

Empire is the worldly power that seeks to usurp the sovereignty of God.

The power of Empire never stops striving to gain your allegiance.
