

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

September 14, 2014

The executive said, You are the second man in this firm who succumbed to temptation.

We acknowledge our great and persistent sinfulness - our total depravity (2).

This sacred grace is completely irrational.

Upon some reflection, or maybe after drinking too much wine, the brothers start to wonder about Joseph.

The brother send Joseph a letter that purports to share the deathbed wishes of Jacob.

The Greek word for grace is xaris, like charisma.

Jesus' answer is not a literal number to be taken legalistically.

All the tax revenue from the entire region was 800 talents.

The master punished, and tortured the servant until payment was made, or as we call it, eternal torment (2).

The strife that Paisley promoted cannot be overlooked, but his legacy will be of one who opened the door to new life in Northern Ireland (2).
