

FAIR-FIELDER

Catch what was said in the sermon?

September 27, 2015

In this dismal season, one bright spot has been a skinny kid named Matt Duffy (2).

He was told right away that he belonged.

There is a mission, and all contribute.

The scope of God's mission can't be bigger than my team, could it?

It would be much better if the number were a divisor of 12.

In Joshua's view, this "theft" of the Spirit should be rectified by Moses.

John makes his reasoning clear: Because he is not one of us.

That someone would be doing such a thing in Jesus' name should be a cause of celebration, not condemnation.

We have predatory preachers who are tirelessly fleecing their flock.

These, too, will not be condemned for their compassionate work.

God has called all of his creation to such service.
