Ruth had been making smaller decisions along the way.

The line between faithfulness and foolishness needs to be clear.

Elijah is in the Queen's backyard (2) so to speak.

Or maybe she was persuaded by his faithfulness.

Bumping up against the limitation of existing faith levels (3) brings us to the door of possibility.

It becomes the yeast that quietly grows your spirit.

These religious leaders don't mind a widow left penniless, homeless, or sick.

The question is not posed in any form of _____ _____ (2); there is no sense of _____.

Jesus is rolling his eyes; these disciples just don't get it.

The gaudy giving is the pretense of piety.

Of course, the terms "widow" and "poor" were synonymous in Jesus' time.

All-in or not-so-much: we grow our faith forward as it becomes our life practice (2).
